Advertisement and consumers go altogether. There are also both a hallmark and a malaise of modern life. Aggressiveness is now being used in the world for promotion of products and consumer goods and services from shoes to ships, from hair dressing to air liner. Actually, the advertisement is the great means which is used to promote the market of the products. So the manufacturers or entrepreneurs of the products try to attract the consumers through very attractive and interesting advertisement. Sometimes advertisements are so rough and tough that the consumers become the prey to the misleading advertisement. There are plenty of allegations that traders and manufacturers resort to various malpractices aiming at befooling the consumers and maximising their own profits. Sometimes advertisements are very harmful to the children. That from their earlyhood they become familiar with the bad names and bad habits like smoking, falsehood the different kinds of poses. So it is necessary to stop unethical business and advertisement. The consumers think that the government must formulate an appropriate set of laws of regulations and should have a body to ensure that all go by the rules.
